Forster Managing Director John Forster*

Passionate about roofing - Forster bring a fresh approach to the refurbishment of Scottish homes and sponsoring this year's SFHA Directory emphasises the new partnership that Forster brings to SFHA members.

Working from our centres throughout Scotland our expertise provides unrivalled specialist advice, technical services and 18 years experience of delivering quality contracts.

Our ethos is centred on understanding our clients and delivering a service that not only meets their needs but exceeds their expectations. Taking care of residents and respecting their needs is one of the many ways in which Forster adds value to the overall re-roofing experience.

Forster are delighted to support the work of the SFHA throughout the year at various events and conferences across Scotland. Come and talk to us in 2009. Forster... the Authority in roofing.
